Portfolio Commentary

Markets were up strongly in November following three consecutive down months. Slowing inflation rates and expectations that the interest rate cycle has peaked supported the rebound in equities. The S&P 500 rose 8.9% and the Nasdaq was up 10.7%. The Australian dollar rose 3% to US$0.661 cents which subdued the increase in the MSCI World Index in AUD which was up 4.8% and the ASX 200 rose 4.5%. Since inception in November 2018, the HM1 portfolio has delivered an annualised pre-tax investment return of 7.6% pa and has paid dividends totalling 46 cents per share.

Our Core Portfolio performed strongly during November up 7%, including good rebounds in our previously poorer performing stocks. Opthea recovered some ground from recent lows as the new highly credentialled management team met with investors to outline the prospects for the company. Block was also up strongly on better-than-expected results and the announcement of a buyback which was well received by the market. Just Eat TakeAway also clawed back last quarters losses after also announcing a buyback at the end of October. Finally, Zillow recovered 13% as the market started to contemplate peak interest rates in the US. The one material fall in the portfolio was China Tourism Group Duty Free down 4% in November as the Chinese economy remained sluggish and news of a mystery respiratory disease emerged.

We have now sold last year's Conference Portfolio and have invested in the stocks that were presented this year at the Sohn Hearts and Minds Investment Leaders Conference. This year's stocks provide a diverse and compelling part of our investment portfolio.

In this month's update, we are delighted to provide a summary of the stocks that were pitched at the Sohn Hearts & Minds Investment Leaders Conference and that now comprise our refreshed Conference Portfolio. We also provide a trading update for one of our Core Portfolio holdings Guzman Y Gomez. You can view the update here.
